This Book

in its entirety, is the product of the Printing, Bindery and Engraving Departments of The Peter Paul Book Co., Buffalo, New York, and is in itself an advertisement of the character of the work now being executed in their establishment.

PREFACE.

THE Publishers take pleasure in presenting to the public herewith the eighth issue of the BUFFALO ADDRESS BOOK, and feel confident that they are justified in claiming that it is a great improvement on all predecessors. The growth of the better resident portion of our city during the past two years has been a surprise to the compilers, and all things considered it should be a source of congratulation to all persons interested in the welfare of Buffalo. The mode of collecting the information for this issue was similar to the methods adopted heretofore, and they offer the same apologies for all errors and omissions, but they feel confident that the number of errors has been reduced in an inverse ratio to the increase in the size of the volume.

The cover design  of this  of the Address Book is the result of a prize competition by the members of the Buffalo Art Students' League. The committee appointed by the Society of Artists awarded the first prize to Miss Barker for a very artistic drawing. The design adopted by the Publishers as being the most practical for mechanical reproduction was designed by Miss Alice Cook, and received the second prize at the hands of the committee.

The Publishers wish to thank the public for the courtesy and promptness of its co-operation, without which a book of this character could not be successfully compiled. Thanks are especially due to our advertisers in their generous and increasing recognition of the value of the Address Book as a medium. We congratulate ourselves in the fact of the increased facilities of our Printing Department having made it possible to greatly improve the typography and general appearance of the book. Our aim to have each issue an advance over all other books we think has been more than realized.

"END OF THE CENTURY" ETIQUETTE

CONDENSED INTO ONE SMALL CHAPTER FOR THE CONVENIENCE OF BUSY READERS.

BREAKFASTS.

The former breakfast, formerly not greatly favored by Buffalo hostesses, has gained in popularity.

The hour usually chosen is noon.

Invitations may be verbal or in note form, and need not be sent out more than a day or two in advance.

The beauty of a breakfast is its freshness and simplicity. The table is simply crummed and the meal is noticeably lighter than luncheon.

Fruit, omelette, chops, game a salad, dessert and coffee, are usually on the bill-of-fare.

Pretty street gowns, with bonnets, are worn by the women and morning coats are suitable for the men.

An after call is expected.

LUNCHEONS.

These midday feasts are decidedly popular with Buffalo hostesses, and may be as elaborate as the purse and taste dictate.

The invitations for a ladies' luncheon are the same as for a dinner, and are usually sent out a fortnight before. They are engraved or written in this form:

*Mrs. Brown requests the pleasure of Mrs. Smith's
company at luncheon,
on Tuesday July the first,
at one o'clock.*

1000 Michigan Avenue.

MARINE BANK Vault. Most modern interior construction.

Luncheon can be made a very showy meal, with fine linen, beautiful china, silver and glass, and a profusion of flowers. Fashion sensibly discourages elaborate favors, and a great variety of wines. Bonbons, candied fruits, olives and relishes are in order.

The menu closely resembles a dinner menu, but soup is omitted, with bouillon or clam juice to take its place.

Frequently the luncheon is served at small tables. When this is done, a civil and pleasant variation from the conventional entertainment may be made by the "progressive" luncheon.

At the progressive luncheon four people are seated at each table. The tables and the place cards are numbered as for progressive euchre. At the end of each course the two people having even numbers proceed to the next table, carrying their napkins and water goblets with them. Thus a delightful general intercourse is effected.

The standing luncheon is in high favor in Buffalo. It is similar to a tea, except that the menu is more elaborate and the hours are earlier. The invitations usually read "from one until three o'clock."

Bonnets are worn at formal luncheons, and the gloves are removed at the table.

TEA.

The American tea is virtually an afternoon reception, and it but little resembles the simple English affair in which it originated.

The English tea is an afternoon set aside by a hostess for receiving a number of calls. The invitations are sent on visiting cards, with the day and "tea at four o'clock" or "tea at five o'clock," written in one corner. They are sent but a few days in advance.

Tee, coffee, or chocolate and wafers or small cakes, are served from a small table, and are passed either by a white-capped maid, or by one of two girl friends of the hostess.

An attendance at a tea is in itself a call, no other call is expected. Women go to teas in handsome street attire. A visiting card sent to the house during the tea hour takes the place of regrets. There is a growing tendency toward sending these cards by mail but it is far more courteous to dispatch them by a messenger or to have a friend who is going leave them with her own.

High tea takes the place of dinner on Sunday evenings in the cities, and consists of a delicious bill-of fare served from a long table.

A "chocolate" is similar to a tea, except that chocolate is served, and chocolate ice cream, cakes and bonbons are affected.

AT HOMES.

Formal receptions are given either in the afternoon or evening.

The hours usually set in the afternoon are from three to six. Sometimes when an exceedingly large number of invitations are issued, the hostess writes

Using MARINE BANK VAULTS saves worry

"from three until five" on half the number, and "from four until six" on the remainder.

For evening receptions the invitations are generally engraved, and the hours are from eight until eleven. Occasionally hostesses combine afternoon and evening receptions by having the hours from five until ten.

The hostess wears a handsome reception toilet, and receives her guests at the drawing-room door. She is assisted by a group of unobtrusive matrons and maidens in evening dress.

Salads, croquettes, rolled bread, chocolate, ices and cakes, are served at small tables, or to the guests standing. The rooms and the tables are decked with flowers, and music adds its charm. The custom is spreading to have a small table, on which stands a tea urn or a punch bowl, placed in one of the rooms at a distance from the dining room.

The women wear handsome gowns and dress bonnets. Occasionally the men are bidden in the afternoon as well as in the evening, but they don dress suits only after six o'clock.

The reception must be followed by a call.

DINNERS.

Dinner invitations should be sent out a week or more in advance, and may be engraved in the third person, as:

Mr and Mrs DeForest Jones request the pleasure of Mr and Mrs Allen Gray's presence at dinner on Thursday July first at seven o'clock.

The reply should be sent immediately, couched in as formal terms.

For a little dinner, the hostess might write

DEAR MRS. GRAY:—Will you and Mr. Gray dine with us on Thursday at seven, to meet Mr. and Mrs. Blank?

Ever yours truly,

MARY JONES.

Everybody should go to a dinner intending to be agreeable.

A prompt arrival is rigidly required.

Women dress for a formal dinner in low neck and short sleeves and jewels. Men are always in evening dress.

The host goes in to dinner with the lady for whom the dinner is given. The hostess comes last with the most important man.

The menu is usually long and tempting, but the best dinners are not always the most elaborate.

An after call follows.

Steel safes, you alone hold key MARINE BANK VAULTS

EVENING PARTIES.

Musicales, card parties, receptions and dances while the evening hours away during the social season.

Invitations for parties and balls are engraved and sent out two weeks or ten days in advance. The following is the formula.

*Mrs. Charles Gardiner requests the pleasure of your presence
Wednesday evening, June first,
at half-past nine.*

Dancing 991 Franklin Street.

Frequently invitations to rather informal dances are sent on visiting cards, the date, the hours, and the word "dancing" being written in one corner. If there is a guest of honor his or her card is enclosed.

A number of Buffalo houses have ball rooms, but usually the lower floors are "crashed" for the reception and dancing, while supper is served in an upper story, or in a tent on the lawn.

Cooling drinks are dispensed throughout the evening, and supper is served at eleven, by a caterer.

Gentlemen should be presented to the young dancing set through the chaperons.

An orchestra plays the round dances, but the old fashion of occasionally introducing square dances for the benefit of the staid elderly set is reappearing.

The cotillon never loses its popularity with the young and with its bewildering complications and gay maneuvers, the German forms a brilliant ending to a dance.

ODDS AND ENDS.

The thimble party has become regularly incorporated into Buffalo's list of social affairs. The invitations for it are sent either by note or on visiting cards, with the word "thimble" written in one corner. The hours may be any time during the afternoon between two and six. The women bring bits of needlework with them, and the time is spent in sewing and chatting. Toward the close of the afternoon, light refreshments are served.

In Buffalo where the veranda is the summer parlor of almost every home, veranda parties are frequent during the summer. Easy chairs, hammocks, potted plants, rugs, and a small table from which lemonade or iced tea and small cakes are served, combine to make the veranda a delightful place to entertain a company of friends.

The "coffee" is a form of entertainment borrowed from the Germans, and the original "Kaffeeklatch" resembles the English tea, except that coffee is served to callers. Recently the "coffee" has been made a form of semi-formal evening entertainment. The guests come and go without much formality and coffee, with such other refreshments as the taste of the hostess dictates, is dispensed.

WEDDINGS.

The most elegant invitations and announcements are engraved in open form, on fine paper, thus

I.

*Mr and Mrs Jerome Lansing ask the honor of your presence, at the marriage of their daughter
Herminie Afande
with Mr John de Bois Ellsworth at Trinity Church
on Tuesday Morning June the eleventh,

II.

*Mr and Mrs Louis Browne

company at the marriage of their daughter Helen Ermina
to Mr Nelson Roy Morrow
on Wednesday June the third,
at six o'clock
Cleveland, O.*

III.

*Mr and Mrs William Williams have the honor to announce the marriage of their daughter
Helen Emily Williams,
to
John James Jones,
on Wednesday June the third,
eighteen hundred and ninety-six.*

Your silverware stored. MARINE BANK VAULTS.

The last form of invitation has recently become very popular, the insertion of the guest's name having a tendency to make the invitation more personal.

The at-home days may follow but it is more elegant to have them engraved upon a separate card. The after reception card is also separate.

If a wedding be a small one, after-cards are sent to the friends not invited.

The home wedding can be made a charming affair with an improvised altar and canopy of flowers, the music of a string orchestra, piano or harp, and the presence of the family and near friends.

The church wedding is formal and dignified, but can be made a thing of beauty if rightly managed. The organ plays softly while the guests assemble, the favored ones invited to the reception being shown to the front seats. At the chosen hour the organ sounds the wedding march, the clergyman, groom and best man take their place at the chancel and await the bridal procession. The ushers lead, followed by the bridesmaids in pretty gowns in harmonizing colors. Then comes the maid of honor usually in white and next the bride on her father's arm. It is proper for the bride to be unveiled and many brides prefer carrying a prayer-book to a hand-bouquet. Jewels, unless they be the groom's gift, are not worn.

This arrangement is subject to all sorts of changes, and the prettiest weddings are where order and good taste have worked together.

At the reception the bride and groom receive, assisted by the bride's parents. The bride leads the way to the tables, and the bridal party have a table usually set in white.

The presents are shown, but without cards.

Calls from the guests upon the family of the bride are expected within ten days, but this formality is often overlooked.

CALLS.

Many Buffalo women set aside a certain day each week—each fortnight, or each month, to which to receive calls. When such is the case, only an intimate acquaintance warrants a call on any day but the one chosen.

The fashionable hours for paying visits in Buffalo are from three to five-thirty.

Women usually make a round of visits before the holidays, before Lent, and at the close of the spring season.

On leaving the city for some time, a visiting card with "P. P. C." written in one corner, answers for a call.

On calling upon a lady for the first time or upon business, the card is sent up. On other occasions the name is usually sent up and the visitor leaves her card on the tray. The fashion of flooding a house with cards for every lady to be fairly has gone out. One card suffices, unless it is at a tea for which the hostess has enclosed a friend's card. In that case, cards are left for both.

The husband's card accompanies that of his wife on all formal occasions.

Brides usually set days for receiving calls, and these days usually take the form of informal receptions.

Party calls are expected within two weeks, and if one neglects them, he must expect to see a long, black mark against his name in the social calendar.

LETTER-WRITING.

Women of good taste usually prefer heavy, unruled cream paper.

The papers most in use are the octavo and commercial sizes, with square envelopes, and for notes and short letters, square paper and oblong envelopes.

In a friendly letter the address appears at the top. The date is written out in full at the bottom.

A married woman should never prefix Mrs. to her signature. She signs her name Mary Walters. If it is a business letter or a letter to a stranger, she may enclose her full title in a postscript after her signature.

An unmarried woman may write (Miss) before her signature in a business letter.

THE LITTLE THINGS OF LIFE.

At a four-o'clock tea or reception, on entering leave your card with the servant in the hall.

In sending invitations it is good style to address the envelope, Walter Walters, Esq.

The eldest daughter is Miss Walters on her cards. The other daughters have their full names engraved.

An invitation to a formal dinner is usually delivered by private hand. Wedding invitations are often delivered from the carriage.

R. S. V. P. is no longer deemed necessary. Polite people need no urging to reply to their invitations.

Mrs. Sherwood says: "Be a gentleman, but talk about a man."

ONE'S SOCIAL POSITION

Depends largely upon the correct observance of social obligations, and one of the surest indications of refinement is the stationery used.

We have special arrangements with George S. Hurd & Co. who are the leading manufacturers, by which we are enabled to furnish their ultra fashionable note papers and envelopes, and we immediately have in stock the new papers, sizes and cuts that this famous house is constantly producing.

WE RECOMMEND THE FOLLOWING:

HURD'S PRINCE OF WALES,
Cream, French Grey, Beryl, Silver Blue and Bleu du Roi, CRANE'S OLD STYLE BOND,
White, Shell Rose, Azure, Sapphire and Celestial,
CRANE'S KID FINISH,

DEPOSIT YOUR SAVINGS

— WITH THE —

Fidelity, Trust & Guaranty Co.

OF BUFFALO, N. Y.

Banking Office in Erie County Bank Building.

AMONG THE REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD DO SO ARE THE FOLLOWING:

- 1—INTEREST is added to your principal at the end of every THREE MONTHS, thus compounding QUARTERLY the income from your deposits.
- 2—THE SAVINGS BANKS add interest every six months and on "sums withdrawn during a regular quarter—except the last three days thereof"—no interest is allowed.—For example: money deposited in a Savings Bank on June 5th and withdrawn on September 26th would not be entitled to interest, although remaining in bank undisturbed, for 113 days. Such loss is avoided by placing your account with this Company.
- 3—YOU MAY FREELY CHECK against your account without the inconvenience of accompanying each check with your pass book.
- 4—THE CAPITAL of The Fidelity Trust & Guaranty Co. is $500,000.00 and its stockholders are liable for an additional $500,000.00, thus placing between its depositors and any loss a barrier of

ONE MILLION DOLLARS

EXCLUSIVE OF COMPANY'S SURPLUS

No limit to the amount you may deposit.
